

Ric's MMM: I really remember only three things about Dragon Boating; "How cold can it be on Hamilton Lake in November?", "Its your decision, not mine!" and "so that's what waves are like in a Dragon boat".

Martin's MMM: On Sunday during breakfast I'll never forget a down and out kept starring at Rachel. It took Rachel quite a while to realise that it was an ex boyfriend off hers but she decided it was better not to talk to him under the circumstances! Also seeing the look on the girls faces that night when they were singing it's raining men at karaoke and they realised all the males were dancing in front of them.
