

Mr Julys

Tane's MMM: Well I guess it would have to my first ever competition race at the Auckland sprints, nerves, a bit of adrenaline, a great team effort all resulting in three wins in a row. A great start to the season and an excellent way to get one under our belts before the Nationals and Auckland regattas.

Nick's MMM: Beating North Shore City Dragons, Allan's son (Kerry Halse) trying to take us out when he was steering, and karaoke on a Sunday night in the most seedy place in town!!
