

The EDITOR says.....

The foot is coming down. I clearly remember the foot coming down. Still several jars of peanut butter and a small turnip later here I am (Teo that is, Dr. Teo in fact) editing the Dragonboat yearbook. Anyway, on with the credits....

Dr. Teo: Editor-in-Chief and recipient of 'Free Beer for Life' award.

The Debster: Queen of the camera. All of the photos in this publication were by Silverdebster with the exception of those that weren't. Those that weren't (chiefly those on the Tauranga S12 'food' page) were by Jason Shortt. The Debster was also responsible for proofreading. Any mistakes that still remain are quite clearly the fault of the judges at Tauranga.

SG: Interviewer and all around cool frood.

Red: The #1 goto person. Need an answer? Email Cirina.

EW: The numero uno sponsor of the Eco-Warriors (or whatever they might happen to be called)

Photos Forever: The official Dragonboat Paparazzi. Webmasters of the truly revolutionary www.paddlewaikato.com

ARC: Official ARCh rivals

The Sponsors: for being Sponsors
